ALL ATLANTA URGED TO GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Pastors Plan to Make First Sunday of New Year Banner Day

Everybody in Atlanta is invited to go to church next Sunday. Of course everybody is invited every Sunday, for church is the one place where most any one can always be welcome. But next Sunday there is a special invitation, for it is "Go to Church Sunday" in Atlanta.

Started by the Evangelical Ministers' association, the movement includes all the scattered churches of the great denomination in the city, and it is expected that there will be the greatest demonstration the churches have ever seen.

It will be the first Sunday of the new year, and the services will be in keeping with the spirit of new year resolutions. The pastors will preach sermons especially prepared for the occasion and there will be special music.

One of the pastors says, every one who is invited to church at any time, and every woman whether she is ever affiliated with a church or not, can afford to go to church at least one Sunday in the year, and the idea of "Go to Church Sunday" is simply to encourage everybody to do so. The church attended by a non-affiliated person is a church of choice, and that church will undertake to show the non-affiliated person the good he has missed.

GLASGOW STEAMER GEM SUNK IN NORTH SEA

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 29.—The Glasgow steamer Gem, a vessel of about 500 tons, has been sunk in the North sea by striking a mine. Two of the crew were rescued, but the fate of the others is unknown.

STOLE TO KEEP WARM: FINDS FRIEND IN COURT

Aged Negro Who Took Armful of Coal on Cold Night, Freed by Recorder

Henry Spear is bent, black and eighty. Also he was very cold and hungry and penniless last Saturday night when he snatched an armful of coal out of a decatur street coal yard, for which he was arrested and brought before Recorder Johnson Monday afternoon.

That was his excuse. "Judge," he said, "dis de first time I ever wuz in co't. I wuz in de civil war for years, and I was in de army. Longstreet's pants and mendeni Marse Gin'ral Bragg's socks. An' I ain't never been 'rested befo'. But Saturday night it 'uz so cold and de old man so broke I 'ee' natchally hatter steal. An' so I stole."

The body servant of General Longstreet and Bragg furthermore declared that he was willing to go back and work for the man he stole from to pay for the coal. Judge Johnson dismissed the case.

CONTENTMENT DECLARED: VIRTUE, NOT A FAULT

The Jewish Educational Alliance decided Monday night that contentment is a virtue not a fault, after listening to four very interesting arguments on the subject by as many gifted young ladies.

Miss Nellie Frankel and Miss Beale Zaban won the decision, while Miss Sarah Feldman and Miss Beale Robins upheld the other side.

An audience of more than 600 people heard the debate. Other interesting features of the evening's entertainment at the Alliance included an address by Leonard J. Grossman; musical selections by Miss Blondheim and Miss Betty Levy, and short addresses by Sam Egan, president, and by Abe Feldman and Sam Levy.

GOOD START MADE FOR CONVENTIONS NEXT YEAR

Bureau Has Already Obtained Twenty-Three Gatherings for Atlanta in 1915

After entertaining 130 conventions during 1914, Atlanta has already secured for the coming year twenty-three of these gatherings, ranging from the Southern Golf association to the meeting of southern supply and machinery dealers, according to the annual report of the Atlanta convention bureau.

Because many organizations have planned to meet in San Francisco during 1915, lured by the exposition, the bureau does not expect the coming year to approach 1914 from a convention standpoint. The eyes of the bureau are already turned toward 1916, however, and to better secure these 1916 meetings, Secretary Fred Houser will move his office in San Francisco for several months of the coming year.

The estimated money spent by convention visitors during 1914, according to the bureau's report, was $1,000,000; over 100,000 visitors were brought here at an expense of $100,000, the cost of operating the bureau.

CLARKSTON WILL HAVE BIG SUFFRAGE RALLY

John R. Dillon, one of the representatives of Clarkston and a member of the Fulton and DeKalb counties branch of the Equal Suffrage party of Georgia, will have a large gathering of Clarkston and Atlanta people at his home in Clarkston Tuesday afternoon to hear a suffrage talk. Several speakers from the headquarters in Atlanta will go out to address the meeting. Among them will be Mrs. George Harrington, Mrs. Fred Brine, Miss Aurelia Roach and Miss Eleanor Raul.

GAS SOON WILL BE IN LARGE DECATUR MAINS

Company Completing Preparations for Extension of Its Service

Gas may be flowing through the street mains of Decatur in about two weeks, according to a statement Tuesday from R. C. Congdon, manager of the Atlanta Gas Light company.

The gas company is completing its preparations for this important extension of its service, said Mr. Congdon; and gas will be turned into the Decatur mains probably within a week for trial. The company then will test thoroughly the readjustment in Atlanta made necessary by the extension, all air will be drawn from the main ends in Decatur, and other details will be made ready for the final house connections. The company will make these without charge, furnishing necessary pipes and meters.

The trunk main to Decatur from the gas works in Atlanta was laid some time ago, and a number of street mains are in place there, some with service pipes laid to the curb.

HOBOKEN TAKES STEPS TO CURB DIPHTHERIA

HOBOKEN, N. J., Dec. 29.—Under penalty of being closed, all theaters and moving picture places in Hoboken must be thoroughly secured and fumigated to help prevent the further spread of diphtheria, now epidemic here. An order to this effect was issued today by the board of health. Nearly 150 cases of diphtheria have been reported.

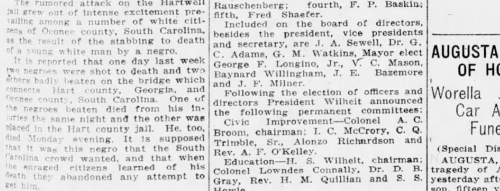

Fatima THE TURKISH BLEND CIGARETTE

As you enjoy your cigarette this evening after dinner it may please you to think of the widely distant places named here—for they have a close relation to the pleasure you get from your Fatima.

At these strangely named towns on the other side of the world, perhaps at the very moment when you are drawing in the fragrant smoke of your Fatima, expert tobacco buyers are going over bale after bale of choice Turkish leaf, selecting here and there tobacco which they consider worthy to enter into the famous Fatima Turkish Blend.

These resident Liggett & Myers buyers know the slightest variation in quality. And it is largely due to their judgment that Fatimas are always so uniformly good.

W. P. BLACKBURN IS ADMITTED TO BAR

Friends of W. P. Blackburn, 520 West Peachtree street, are showering him with congratulations over his passage of the Georgia bar examinations Monday.

The fact that young Blackburn passed the examinations is not at all extraordinary, state his friends, in view of his splendid record at the University of Virginia for the past two years, but they say he deserves particular praise because he mastered the Georgia code, with no instructor or teacher, in the short space of three months.

Instead of returning to Virginia this fall, young Blackburn bought a code and set to work by his "lonesome." The results of this was a certificate from Judge W. D. Ellis Monday, admitting him to practice in the Georgia bar.

NEGRO ARRESTED WHILE BREAKING INTO STORE

Caught in the act of breaking into the front door of D. C. Pittman's store on the Marietta road at 2 o'clock in the morning, Charlie Hill, colored, was arrested by County Officers Jackson and Everett.

The man had a large section of a heavy bar, and was using this as a jimmy, when he was seen by the officers. He was locked up in the Tower pending the action of the grand jury.

Augusta Sees Fourth of Holiday Tragedies

Worella Jackson Killed by Car As She Watches Funeral Procession

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 29.—The fourth tragedy of Augusta holidays occurred yesterday afternoon when Worella Jackson, fifteen years old, granddaughter of the late Dr. W. H. Doughty, Sr., and niece of Dr. W. H. Doughty, Jr., dean of the medical department of the University of Georgia, was ground to death under the wheels of an electric car at the corner of Greene and Center streets.

The child had been watching the funeral procession of little Elizabeth Doughty, who was burned to death when her dress caught from a sparkler Christmas, and became confused in crossing the tracks.

The following officers were selected: John Owen, worshipful master; S. S. Howell, senior warden; Benjamin Neely, junior warden; J. E. Bassmore, treasurer; H. M. Carlton, secretary; A. O. Allen, Tyler; Major William W. Dick, senior deacon; J. A. Niven, junior deacon; W. H. Fitzpatrick, senior steward; E. Russell, junior steward; and W. M. Mills, chaplain.

FOREMAN OF CITY PRISON FINED FOR SHOOTING GUN

James W. Hughes, a foreman in the employ of the city prison department, was fined $25 and costs by Recorder Johnson Tuesday morning as the result of his alleged Christmas celebration.

Several witnesses testified that Hughes, who is fifty-five years of age, drew his revolver Christmas morning and fired a wild shot which shattered a window in the Fore Atlanta Drug store, at the corner of Flat Shoals avenue and Glenn Rock road.

NO TROOPS NEEDED IN HARTWELL, SAYS SHERIFF

Situation Much Improved and No More Trouble is Anticipated

Having been advised that a mob from Oconee county, South Carolina, would cross the bridge into Hart county, Georgia, and demand that a negro prisoner held in the Hartwell jail be delivered to them, Mayor Thornton, of Hartwell, Monday evening, wired Governor Slaton requesting that troops be sent to Hartwell.

Governor Slaton called up Mayor Thornton over long distance telephone and discussed the situation with him, advising him to confer with Sheriff Johnson of Hart county, to the end that the sheriff might have in such additional deputies as were necessary to prevent order.

The governor then called up Sheriff Johnson and was advised by him that he had the situation in hand and would be able to control the mob without assistance of troops. The governor told Sheriff Johnson that he would send troops if they were necessary, but that he should first exhaust his own power to control the situation.

The rumored attack on the Hartwell jail grew out of intense excitement resulting among a number of white citizens of Oconee county, South Carolina, as the result of the stabbing to death of a young white man by a negro.

It is reported that one day last week two negroes were shot to death and two others badly beaten on the bridge which connects Hart county, Georgia, with Oconee county, South Carolina. One of the negroes beaten died from his injuries the same night and the other was placed in the Hart county jail. He, too, died Monday evening. It is supposed that it was this negro that the South Carolina crowd wanted, and that when he escaped citizens learned of his death they abandoned any attempt to go on.

HENRY HORNE, FORMER MACON MAYOR, IS DEAD

Dies at Home of Brother in Middleville After Several Months' Illness

MIDDLEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 29.—Henry Horne, for one term mayor of Macon, and for many years one of the city's most public-spirited citizens, died yesterday at the home of his brother, Julius Horne, at Middleville. He had been ill for several months, and his death was not unexpected.

He was fifty-eight years of age and had secured a great deal of property, most of which consisted of Macon real estate.

Two daughters, Mrs. John Darrett, of Middleville, and Mrs. W. H. Oliver, of Macon, survive him, also two brothers, Julius Horne, of Middleville, and A. Horne, of Macon, and one sister, Miss Amelia Horne, of Macon.

ASKS FREEDOM FROM NON-WORKING HUSBAND

Declaring that her husband, T. R. King, now of Memphis, "has no sense in life" and so wouldn't work consistently, Mrs. T. R. King Monday filed suit in the superior court for a total divorce.

The wife charges also that for three years her husband was habitually intoxicated. The King was married in 1903 and have two children, Sarah aged 8 years and James, whose age was not stated by the wife. The suit was filed Monday at Macon.

How to Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2½ ounces of cod liver oil (not fish liver oil), put in a bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start with a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be completely cured.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation cures right from a cough and gives the most immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. It quickly breaks the inflamed membranes and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent low cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic cough and winter cough. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

It is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in gualiac, which is so rich in "vitamin" that it is a guarantee to avoid disappointment, ask for a druggist for 2½ ounces of it. A guarantee of satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CIVICS PROGRAM AT ATLANTA WOMAN'S CLUB

The program of the Atlanta Woman's club meeting Monday afternoon was very interesting and profitable.

Following the regular order of business, the president, Mrs. McElwain, presented Dr. Frances Bradley, who brought an account of a complete report.

Dr. Bradley told of how Florida club women were helping things along through co-operation—not simply among themselves, but with men's organizations that give aided strength.

The Florida federation and health board through unity of effort, secured this year from the legislature $50,000 for initiating a movement to fight tuberculosis.

The work of these two great organizations was discussed by Mrs. Bradley, who presented the vital statistics at birth and the educational value of the club.

An appreciation of the valuable services of Dr. Bradley, both in national and state work, was voiced by Mrs. Edward McCall, and the club unanimously wished her good speed on the journey she is soon to take to San Francisco where, during the exposition she will have charge of the department of child hygiene in the government's social economy building.

Mrs. Bannister, the missionary to the child widows of the Orient, was present. In the evening she talked appealingly of the condition of females in her country.

Mrs. Bannister was married at nine years of age, and having experienced all the horrors of child marriage, she is now a mother of six children.

The chairman of civics, Mrs. Lyman Amoson, took charge of the last hour's program, presenting, as her principal speakers, Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin and Mrs. Johnnie Black.

Mrs. Lumpkin spoke of the relation of civics to the home, of how women must extend their housekeeping to towns and cities; their motherhood must reach to the children of the poor and the alien; they must lead to women the conservation, the well-being of the home and child.

A resolution was presented by Mrs. Black and endorsed by the club asking the daily papers to refrain from publishing in such a glaring manner too many murders, burglaries and other crimes that intimidate women and encourage criminals.

The history of civics in the Atlanta Woman's club was briefly told by Mrs. Pattillo. It was one of the original clubs of the United States bureau of education for literature on civic and moral instruction in the public schools.

The educational value of civics was brought forward by Mrs. H. E. Stock. That Atlanta needs nothing more than civics was emphasized by Mrs. A. M. Dow.

The inconvenience occasioned by the poor marked and numbered streets was discussed by Mrs. Thornehill Jacobs in a bit of personal experience.

Civics from a suburban standpoint was the subject of forceful remarks by Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, of College Park.

Mrs. Emily McDougall suggested that plans for beautifying the grounds around the club house were timely. The needs for drinking water throughout the city, for man and beast, were discussed by Mrs. A. Y. Oude.

Mrs. Amoson expressed her regret that there was not time to hear from others present.

The meeting adjourned to meet January 12, Mrs. John H. Slater was appointed chairman of the program.

Miss Byrd Honor Guest

At a beautiful dance Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Byrd entertained at an elaborate dance and buffet supper Monday evening at the Capital hotel, in honor of Miss Virginia Cook, the guest of Mrs. J. G. Wright.

The home was artistically decorated with garlands of smilax and wreaths of holly caught with bright crimson ribbons. In the center of the hall a large piece was a graceful arrangement of red and white flowers, and the prize awarded at the conclusion of the game was a pair of crimson mittens arranged in a gold basket.

The guests were Miss Nellie Dodd, Miss Annie Amoson, Miss Laura Satt, Miss Martha Louise Cassels, Miss Frances Powell, Miss Henrietta Tupper, Miss Georgia Rice, Miss Sarah Eubanks, Miss Annie Winslow Bates, Miss Mary King and Miss Mary King will pour tea.
